General Day-to-day lesson plan

Day 1: Start with the anticipation Stations on Jamboard to engage students in topics that are present in The Giver as well as tying to the enduring understanding statement. Group/class discussion may happen after the Jamboard session is completed. Focus on statements where students disagree with each other or where most agree. Dig deeper into their why.

Day 2: Utopia entrance ticket

The Giver Vocabulary on Quizlet: play it cold with students and use Quizlet Live.

Ongoing Lessons: Start reading The Giver as a class.

- While reading chapters in The Giver have daily exit/entrance tickets on Google Forms.
- In the first few days of reading the novel, play Quizlet Live with students so they are exposed to the vocabulary and see the progression on which words they have learned.
- Discussions should take place either before reading or after reading the chapter(s) for the day. Be sure to put discussion questions from chapters 10, 19, & 21.

Final assessment on Google Docs (Tony-I want to recreate my assessment based on what I learned from you about enduring understandings. I have other standards that I hit on in this unit, but for this workshop I decided to just focus on theme) Final reflection on Flip
