

THE STOCK MARKET GAME™

Economics Standards

Economics

In SMG...	Students will:	Strands
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students learn about the power of compounding interest for building wealth. Students learn how to analyze a company in detail by researching products, finances, and corporate structure. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish financial goals Make a financial plan considering budgeting and asset building Determine ways to track the success of their plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 9.2.2.2.1 10.2.2.2.1 11.2.2.2.1 12.2.2.2.1
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students learn how to read a stock quote in detail, and apply that information to decision making. Students can describe different types of mutual funds and exchange traded funds, and the role these play in a diversified portfolio. Students learn how news and external events can affect a company's stock price. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluate investment options using criteria such as risk, return, liquidity, and time 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 9.2.2.2.2 10.2.2.2.2 11.2.2.2.2 12.2.2.2.2
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students learn how one makes money on a stock purchase through capital gains and dividends, and how to calculate a dividend and the tax implication of capital gains and losses. Students will conclude and summarize their learning from the program, and apply that information to make sound investment decisions in the future. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluate and apply risk-management strategies in investing and insuring decisions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 9.2.2.2.2 10.2.2.2.2 11.2.2.2.2 12.2.2.2.2