LEADERSHIP

A Component Of Bestprep's Classroom Plus Program

Defining Leadership

What kind of leader would you want to follow?

- According to the Merriam-Webster dictionary:
  : a position as a leader of a group or organization
  : the power or ability to lead other people

This definition doesn't tell the whole story….

- Leadership is the ability to influence positive change in others...Regardless of title or role.

Famous Leaders

Who comes to mind?

How do they inspire you?

Why would you trust following them?

Leadership in High School

Think of all the places you could be in a leadership role…

Leadership in Action

- Teach/Model
- Help/Mentor
- Take Action/Responsibilities

Self-Leadership

- Book learning is important, but class activities that help you learn to be interactive and improve social skills are equally important.
- Learning to be a part of a community can be as valuable as your formal education.

Attributes of Self-Leadership

- Self-Confidence and a Positive Attitude
- Friendly and Respectful to Everyone
- Trustworthy and Organized
- Self-Control (ability to deal with stress)
- Acceptance of Others (space, privacy, choices)

Leadership in College

Taking on a leadership role in college can be one of the best ways to challenge yourself and learn valuable skills that you can use both during and after college.

Leadership on your Resume

How do you show your leadership skills on your resume?

How do you show your leadership skills in an interview?

Leadership in Employment

What employers are looking for:

- Shows initiative and solves problems
- Ability to bring about positive change
- Ability to work effectively on a team as a leader and as a follower
- Reliable and dependable

Take Action!

Do's	Don'ts
• Be optimistic	• Join a club just to "fluff" your resume
• Be Committed	• Commit to something and not follow through
• Follow your passions	• Throw in the towel after a bad experience
• Set concrete goals
